The University of North Dakota invites your nominations for the College of Nursing Discover, Deliver, Dream, and Young Alumni Awards which will be presented at the 100 year Nursing Gala Celebration on October 2, 2009.

We encourage you to think of a UND Nursing alumna or alumnus who is deserving of these prestigious awards and who represents the best of what nursing and the College of Nursing offers.

It is important that you let the person who you plan to nominate know of your nomination so that you may coordinate your efforts with others willing to support the nomination.

The nominee shall:

- Have made a major contribution to nursing during his or her professional career.
- Have met the individual award criteria listed on the back of this brochure.
- Promote the highest professional standards of nursing.
- Provide two letters of support from peers, colleagues, or supervisors citing examples of leadership, research, teaching, and/or nursing excellence.

Award Categories

Discover

This award is given to an alumnus who has made a major contribution to nursing research and scholarship, OR has used sound and scientific research findings in practice leading to significant changes in the clinical nursing practice at the unit, service, institutional, regional, or professional levels.

Deliver

This award is given to an alumnus who has consistently demonstrated excellence in practice and have made unique contributions to nursing practice and patient care.

Dream

Given to an alumnus who has made a major contribution to nursing through leadership, innovative teaching, creative approaches to improve healthcare and/or demonstration of an entrepreneurial spirit.

Young Alumni

The Young Alumni Award is given to an alumnus who has graduated within the past 10 years and who is recognized for significant contributions to nursing practice, scholarship, teaching, research or leadership beyond what is expected of young alumni.

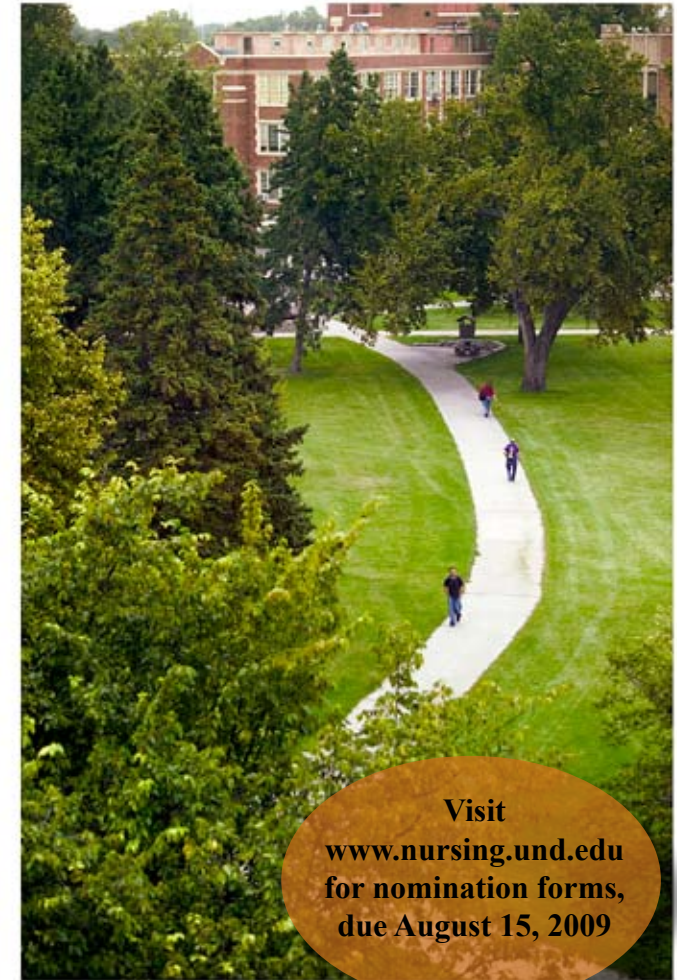

All awards will be given during the UND College of Nursing Centennial Gala banquet on October 2, 2009.

Visit www.nursing.und.edu for more information and to register.
